

16th Annual H.O.G. Chapter Scavenger Hunt

All Des Moines H.O.G. Chapter members are eligible to participate regardless of being the driver or the passenger. A bike does not have to be in the photo. Each member must complete a separate entry and submit photos.

Step 1 – Take Your Photo With The Specified Item

- Drive or ride to the town by the route of your choice.
- Find the specific item.
- Take a photo which includes the item, you and this side of the 2023 entry form showing the logo.

Step 2 – Enter The Contest

- Complete as much of the hunt as you can, taking photos along the way.
- CLEARLY PRINT your name and HOG number at the top of the form.
- Submit your entry form and photos no later than 10/11/2023.
- Photos should be on CDs or flash drives (preferred).
- Entry forms and photos should be submitted to Tammy Danielson.

Prizes - $500 Prize Pool

- Patches and prize drawings of $100, $75, $50 and $25 for members who have 100% completion.
- Additional prize drawings of $25 for members who have completed at least 20% (5+ stops).
- Prizes will be awarded at the November meeting.
- Decisions of the judge(s) are final.

MEMBER NAME:

H.O.G. NUMBER:

	CLUE	PHOTO
1	No crime is needed to do time at The Jailhouse Inn in Elkader.	inn sign
2	On 2 nd & Division in Stuart, look up to see where Bonnie and Clyde did a stick up.	sign
3	In Templeton, whiskey was hidden from Prohibition agents in Bernard Al Schulte's 12-foot tombstone in Sacred Heart Cemetery.	Bernard Schulte tombstone
4	Stephen Blumberg, aka The Book Bandit, was arrested in Ottumwa for stealing over 26,000 books from across the world.	public library
5	Nothing royal about staying at the castle in Anamosa.	penitentiary or sign
6	Retail establishment in Osceola sounds like a 1970's television show about motorcycle officers.	store sign
7	Take a spin over to the rotary Squirrel Cage Jail in Council Bluffs.	jail
8	Iowa's newest courthouse is located on the Indianola town square.	courthouse
9	During Prohibition, Sioux City was known as "Little Chicago" and housed inmates at the 5-story jail in the downtown Woodbury County Courthouse.	courthouse
10	Get caught red handed and you might be locked in this Redfield jail cell.	jail cell
11	If you were caught stealing a dollar from Silver City in 1911, you might have been jailed here.	historic jail
12	Long before the shoot-out at the O.K. Corral, lawman Wyatt Earp lived in this row house on Franklin Street in Pella.	row house
13	Ride your Chrome Horse to this saloon in the Newbo district of Cedar Rapids where you will find bikes in and behind the bar.	horse sculpture
14	Serial killer John Wayne Gacy once lived in the town of Waterloo, now home to the Screaming Eagle American Bar and Grill.	motorcycle sculpture/bar
15	Visit the sign describing what it feels like to spend life behind bars near 1940 Stagecoach Road (aka Highway 17) northwest of Webster City.	motorcycle sign
16	Al Capone was a frequent visitor to Dubuque when this jail was still operational.	historic jail
17	If you stole some Benjamins in Franklin County between 1880 and 1980, you could have earned a stay at this historic jail in Hampton.	historic jail
18	Be yourselves and have some eats at Wild Hogs in Walford.	bar sign
19	No membership is needed for a stay on Country Club Drive in Fort Madison.	penitentiary sign
20	Hide out at The Cooler in Shell Rock if authorities are hot on your trail.	bar sign or jail cell
21	Public Enemy Number One, John Dillinger, stole $50,000 from the First National Bank in a bloody heist at 5 North Federal Way in Mason City.	bank sign
22	Make bail and get a tattoo at Wildside Bail Bonds in Cedar Rapids.	sign
23	American Outlaws can be found in downtown Des Moines.	bar sign
24	After losing privileges on two wheels, you might have gotten a paddy wagon ride to the Old Cedar County Jail in Tipton.	paddy wagon or jail
25	Check out wanted posters at the Cascade post office, then take your caboose around the corner to the calaboose (stone jail).	calaboose